YOUTH SUNDAY

Observations from the office

The church needs someone to head up the Parish Visitors....who can do that? Oh, Natalie can! We need to revitalize programs for our young people...but, who can do that? Oh, Natalie can! Wouldn't it be nice to have a Bible Study class for anyone who's interested...alas, who can do that? Oh, Natalie can! Who can keep that live Nativity going every Christmas? Natalie can! It's a good thing Natalie doesn't have any responsibilities at home....what??? She and Doug have three active, growing children to keep them busy, and still, Can-do Natalie is there for St. John's? And, this Youth Sunday is just another can-do day for our Natalie! Thanks, Natalie. KBM

TIME TO HAVE YOUR PETS BLESSED!!

Next Sunday, April 19th, will be the service for blessing your pets...so bring your cats, dogs, parakeets, hamsters, hedgehogs, frogs, geese, capybaras, goats...well, you get the idea.

All pets must be on a leash or in a carrier, and remember, if your pet cannot be present, bring a picture. Bringing a picture is also a nice way to remember a pet that has passed.
